Year 5

Welcome to our Year 5 blog! We have had a brilliant time so far and we have been working really hard! The walls in Year 5 are packed with learning and fun. The teachers are very kind.

Last week, we celebrated Democracy Day where we applied for different jobs by making presentations and speeches and then we got to vote people in for each job. We are very excited for our most important job - we can't wait to be buddies to Reception!

We are reading the book 'The Lion and The Unicorn' in English. It is about an evacuee who goes to the countryside. We have enjoyed writing our own opening of a recount as if we were evacuees in the war. We are really looking forward to finishing and sharing these at our Remembrance Day service that is coming up later this term.

During maths, we have been learning about decimal fractions. We've been looking at converting common fractions into decimal and mixed number fractions, as well as comparing and ordering different numbers.

In history, we have been looking at WWII and how Britain declared war on Germany in 1939 and how the war ended in 1945. In DT, we have been looking at Anderson Shelters and we are looking forward to making our own.

In PE, we have been learning how to play hockey. So far, we have practised block tackles and dribbling and we can't wait to play more matches.

In reading, we have been looking at different Learning Behaviours - supporting others and active listening, discussing and explaining and taking responsibility for our own and our group's learning. We are very good at these skills already! Next week, we will be starting to read our book 'Valley of the Lost Secrets'.

We are really enjoying Year 5 and we have already done so much learning!

Reception Class

Congratulations to our new Reception children who have done so well on their Transition Days. We are looking forward to having them in full time from Monday. The Year Fives are really looking forward to meeting their Reception 'buddies' on Monday and supporting them with settling in, lunchtimes, reading and other activities.
