

British Values

The Department for Education set out guidelines for all schools to promote British Values.

‘All have a duty to ‘actively promote’ the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.’ Dfe 27.11.14

‘This ensures young people understand the importance of respect and leave school fully prepared for life in modern Britain.’ Lord Nash 2014

British Values at Wisborough Green Primary School

Democracy

- Voting for the school council.
- Whole school colour challenges.
- Pupil voice surveys.
- School council involvement in interviews.
- Respecting the views and values of others.
- Our school's behaviour and discipline policy involves rewards, which pupils vote on as a class group.

The rule of law

- Anti-bullying teaching and assemblies
- Class contracts and class rules.
- Assemblies to reinforce whole school rules.
- PSHCE – reflecting on behaviour
- Visits from authorities; Police, Fire, Lifeguards.

Mutual respect

- PSHCE
- RE
- School support charities – Children in need, Comic relief, Crawley open house
- Giving clothes and school materials to Africa
- Links with schools in Pakistan and Crawley.
- Promoting diverse attitudes and challenging stereotypes.
- Home- school agreement
- Buddy system with younger classes

Individual Liberty

- Making choices in a safe and supportive environment.
- E-safety and PSHCE
- Freedom of choice – Extra Curricular clubs and opportunities.
- Assemblies planned and carried out by children.
- Show and tell time for children to talk about their interests and experiences.